Go Confidently In The Direction

The Pickford Senior Class

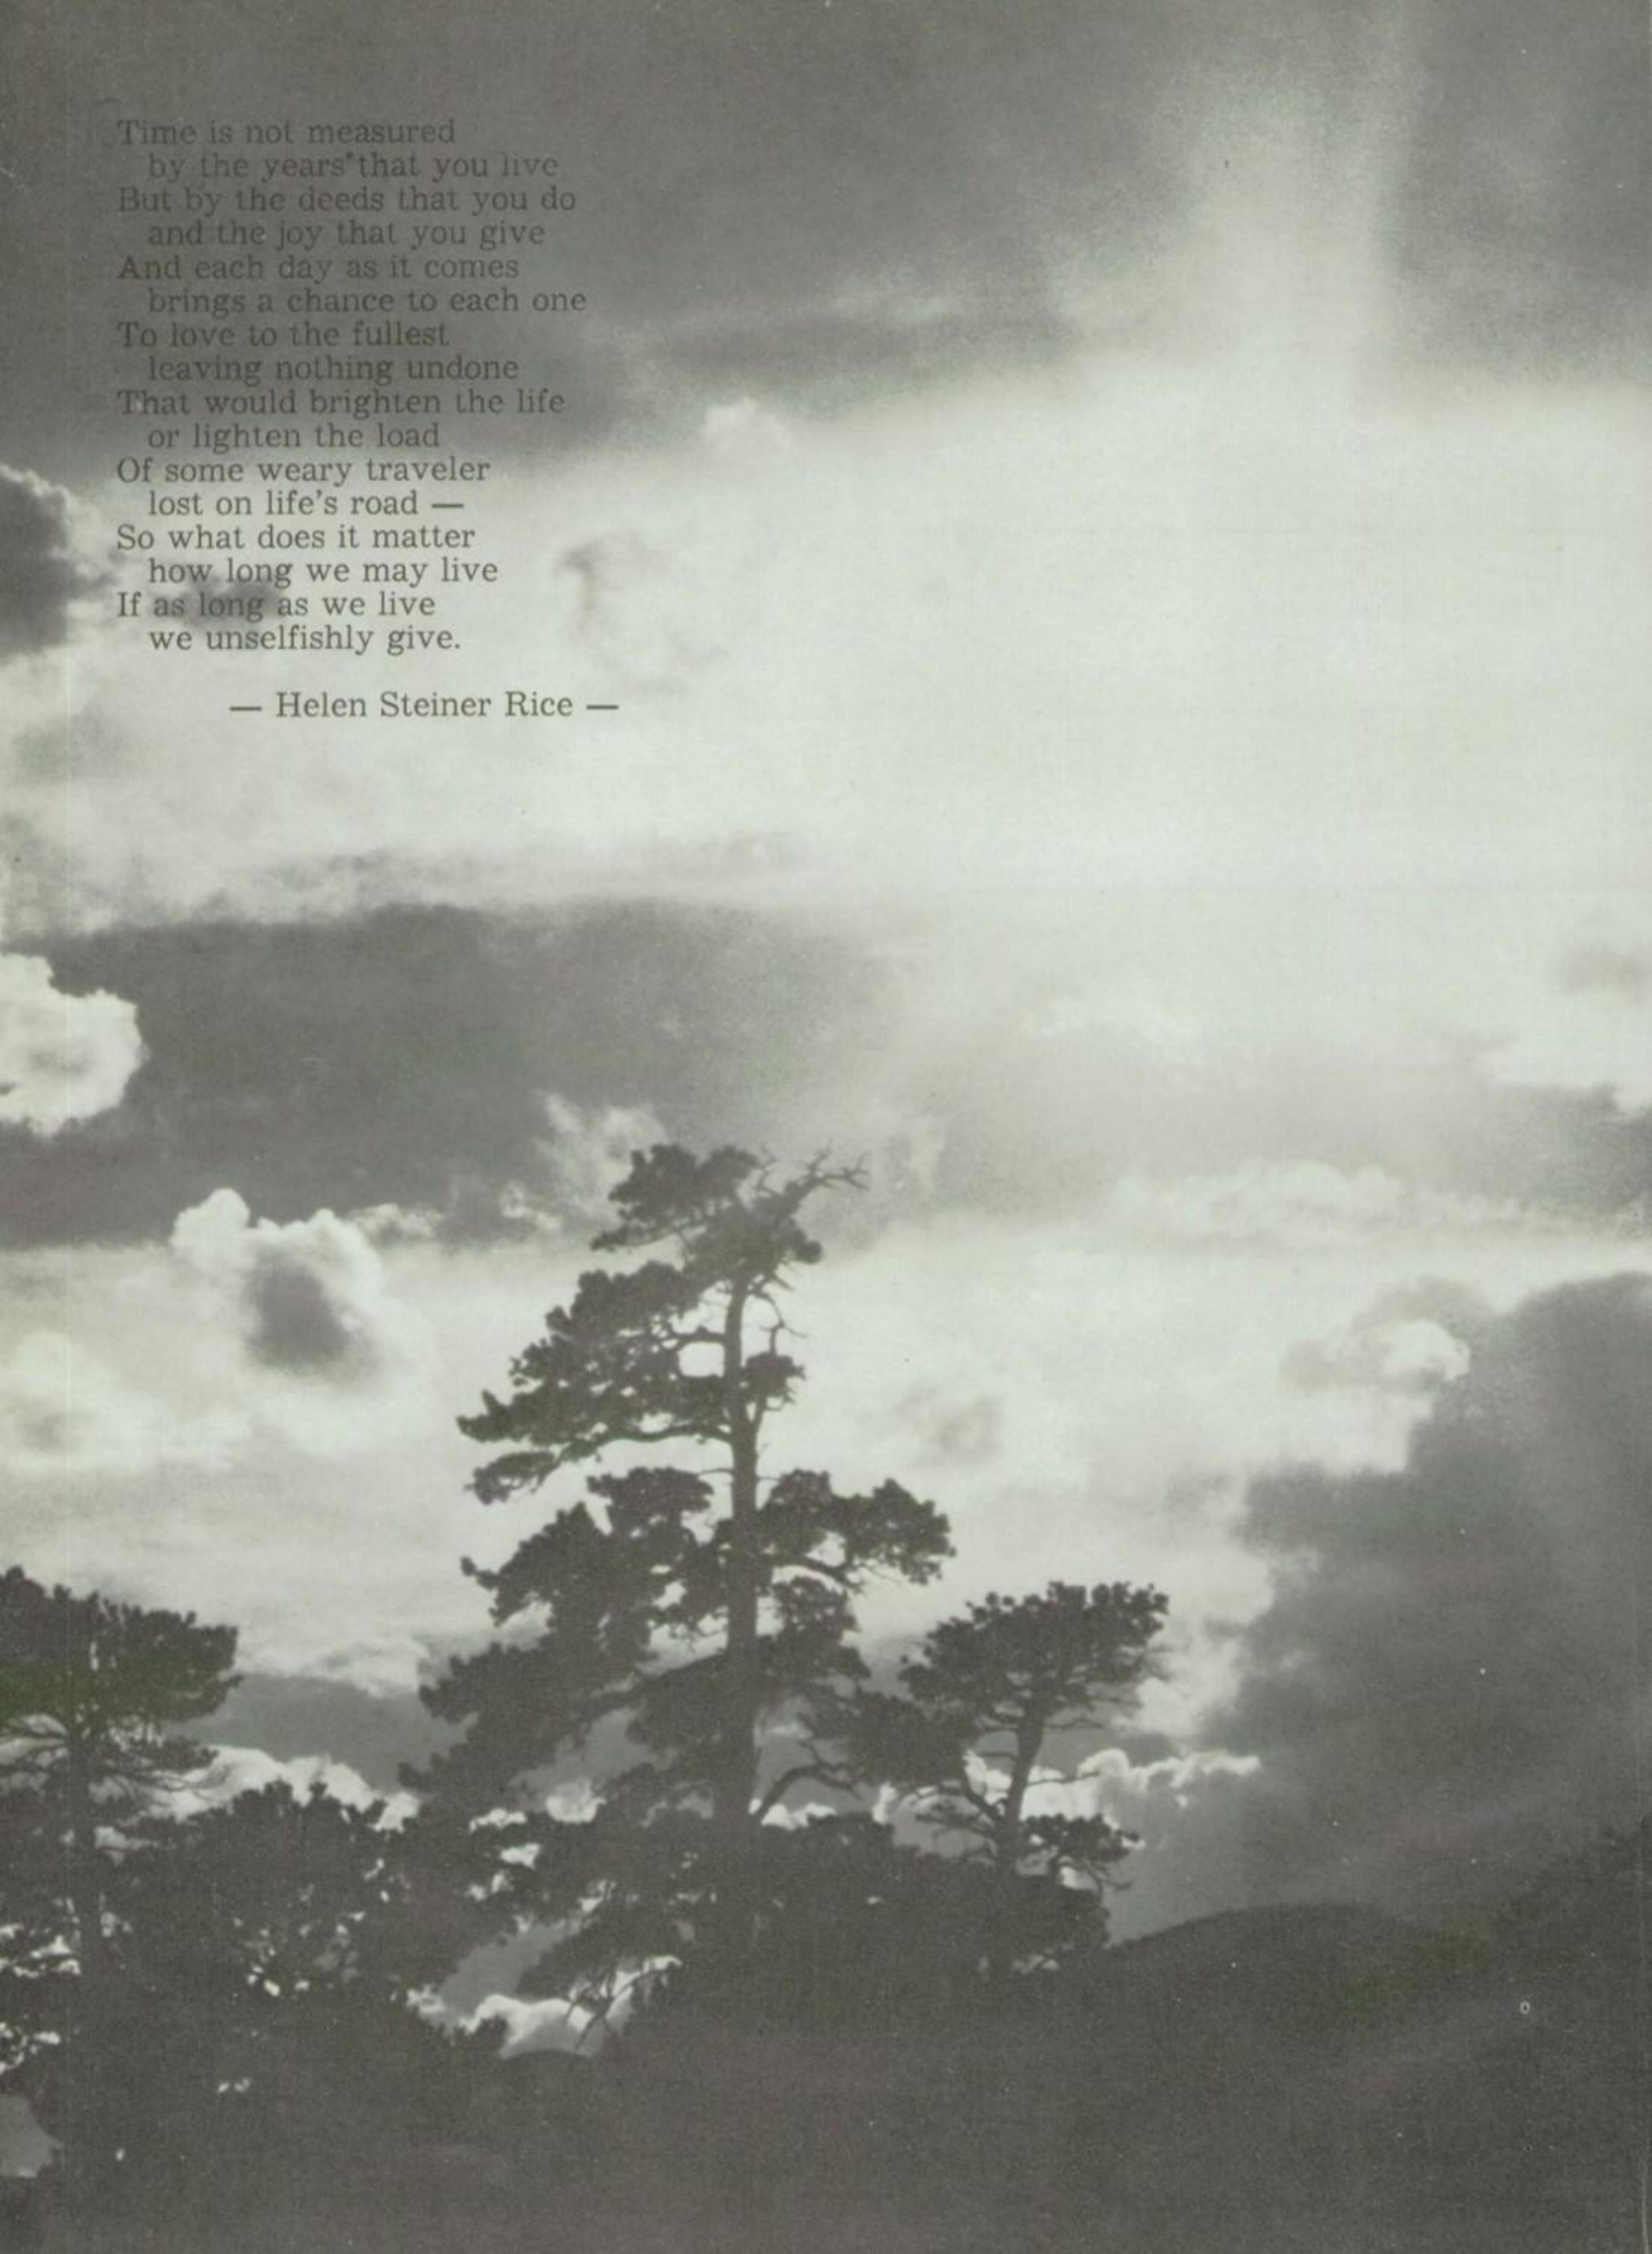

Presents The
"1980
PANTHER

Time is not measured by the years*that you live
But by the deeds that you do and the joy that you give
And each day as it comes brings a chance to each one
To love to the fullest leaving nothing undone
That would brighten the life or lighten the load
Of some weary traveler
lost on life's road —
So what does it matter
how long we may live
If as long as we live
we unselfishly give.

A large graphic of a pyramid composed of the word 'SENIORS' repeated many times, set against a starry night sky background. The pyramid is formed by the word 'SENIORS' repeated many times, with the words arranged in a way that they form a large, symmetrical shape. The background is a dark, starry sky with a bright star in the upper left corner. The overall effect is one of a vast, cosmic structure made of the word 'SENIORS'.

Seniors . . . A Collective Group of Young People Who Are About to Embark On A Journey Filled With Uncertainties, Doubts, and Dreams. That's Just The Senior Trip To Washington D.C., Wait Until They Are Out On Their Own.

Mr. Kenneth Heikkinen

Seniors Are Like Teabags, You Can't See Their Strength Until They Are In Hot Water.
Robert Howell

A Senior is a student who has been around high school for a short period of time and suddenly you realize that you are four years older.

Marv Cruzan

In most ways, this year's Seniors were better than the normal class. We all know what we mean — right Miles??

Don Bush

It's been rewarding to watch you mature.
Cindy Smith

The Senior Class of 79-80 is exceptional. Many of the students have talent & they could go places if given the chance.

Ron Hill

The Class of "80" proved to be an interesting class. Thank goodness they're gone!!

Paul Harrison

What is a Senior?? Someone who is always trying to get a pass to get out of Study Hall!!
Scott

The

"MA"

The Best!! You Will Be Missed!
Sharon Cottle

This Year's Seniors are a fine group of young men and women who should do well in life. P.H.S.'s loss is the world's gain.

Robert Hunter

The Seniors are winners, and will go through life the same way.

Mac

Be involved, in the journey of life, be an active part of it at each milepost and don't ever let go.

Larry Cooper

The 80's will definately be influenced by this group of hard working, enthusiastic, literate graduates. Some of them have already left their marks. Just look at the desk tops in study hall.

Thomas Soboleski

This is just the beginning for the Seniors!! I wish them the best of everything.

Marco Lamonto

This year we were very fortunate to have in our presence an exchange student from Brazil. His name is Marco Lamonto and he is 16 years old.

Marco enjoys disco, going to the movies, & watching basketball games. Marco also likes our style of clothing, especially jeans. He also thinks that our people are very friendly and our country very beautiful.

Marco plans to be a senator in the future just like his father. We would like to take this opportunity to wish Marco the best of luck and to thank him for enriching our lives with his visit to P.H.S.

Thank you Marco

Class History

If my memory serves me correctly, it was four years ago (seems like 400 to me) that P.H.S. was generously blessed with 43 wild & crazy freshmen — the infamous “Class of 80” of course. Naturally we wanted to make our first impression a great one by electing intelligent, hard-working class officers. But it was the same old song “none of the such to our class belonged” so we settled for as follows: Wayne Nayback was “Leader of the Pack” along with his right-hand man, Chris McCord, as Vice-President. Jacki Quinnell took notes while Laura Izzard cleaned out our wallets to the last thin dime. All the teachers were afraid of us so Mrs. Hunter & Mr. Howell took turns through out the year trying their hardest to guide us. Cherie Rosing was our Carnival candidate and alas but to no avail — we did not win, what can you expect no cars or bars! Our cheerleaders were three very spirited chicks: Laura Izzard, Marcia LeHigh, & Jacki Quinnell.

No one wanted to come back for the second round, but would you argue with a Colt 45?? This was the year of our biggest downfall, one that we’ll all remember (and regret) — a new advisor Mr. Thomas H. Soboleski. Little did he realize what he was in for or vice versa. Mark Allison was elected President; Chris McCord again served as V.P. (making a career out of it); the honorable Steven P. Halsey kept an eye on the bucks and Gary Christensen put on a dress and thus was elected Secretary. We again tried unsuccessfully to grab that Carnival Crown with the Lovely Carla Reich as our candidate. We had the looks but they had the cash. Cheering our boys on to the big “V” were none other than those two famous celebrities: Laura Izzard and Jacki Quinnell.

Our Junior year was a slight case of Double Vision along with a little luck. We knew we were getting close to the end of the best years of our lives (a hackneyed wife’s tale) so we decided to take it to the limit when we elected class officers. The smartest thing we did in our whole high school career was accomplished when we elected the diligent Suzette LaJoie — alias “Ethel”, as our commander. Wayne Nayback bribed us into letting him take Chris’s job as V.P. Treasurer and Concession’s Manager was Judy Kronemeyer. Judy was a great asset to our class and when we lost her we lost an outstanding worker but, more important, we lost an outstanding friend. Sherry Lockhart was an “A” student in grade school penmanship and she got the job of cleaning up the Secretaries book. And may I add she did a fine job! We finally got it together at the Carnival, Suzette LaJoie was our charming candidate and my, my how elegant she looked with her royal purple robe and sparkling crown — Victory at last!!! During the Ham Supper a few of us (those doing the work) thought the world was surely coming to an end, but aside from paralysis we survived. The Spaghetti Supper was dramatically different — everyone worked!!!! We are deeply indebted and grateful to Mr. and Mrs. Johnson for all their time and effort at both. This turned out to be a very profitable year for our wild & strangely crazy class, we even sold concessions at noon! We really had control of the Varsity cheering section because of the following four lively ladies: Laura Izzard, Jacki Quinnell, Carla Reich, and Jaci Rutledge.

And the moment we had waited for suddenly appeared on the stage — our senior year. Ya-Hoo, first in the lunch line!!! The official roster changed very little, we were tired of voting. And again because of her tireless efforts and miraculous ability to lead our class, Suzette LaJoie was elected President; Chris McCord regained his title as V.P. (3 out of 4 ain't bad!!); Wayne Nayback kept our finances in order and Sherry Lockhart continued to record our "well-organized, mature, and hassle-free (?)" class meetings.

We sold Christmas cards, calendars, raffle tickets and other miscellaneous items. We tried to sell Mr. Soboleski, but to our dismay we realized that we couldn't even "give" him away. We also sold carnival tickets for our gracious candidate — Sherry Lockhart. It was a close race, but again our class let the last of our candidates down.

The roles of Homecoming King and Queen were filled by Gary Christensen and Sherry Lockhart. Jaci Rutledge deserves a special Thanks for adding a very special touch to that nite. Jaci played the song "Babe" by Styx on the piano as the candidates walked in.

We are planning to take our senior trip to Washington D.C. this coming June. I am very sure it will be a great trip and educational experience for all those involved.
